“ Aunt Velma was always a shining light in our extended family. Her laughter and sense of humor always cheered me, her wisdom and faith inspired me, and her kindness always touched my heart. Her pies and cakes were always a treat too. I was her nephew but she would always pinch my cheek and tell me I reminded her of Jack, her youngest son and my older cousin. She always made me feel a part of her life even if it had been years between the times that we saw each other. Heaven has another Angel and I can see her singing and playing her music in the stars. My heartfelt and sincere support goes out to my cousins and their families. My mom, sisters, and I all send our love your way. God Bless, Jeff Adair

“ Velma what a sweet person, and what a wonderful Christian life she lived. She was one of the founding members at that Benton Harbor, Church Of God Of Phrochey. I'll remember her for her as our song learder, and her mandolin playing. Most of all how she loved her family, and grand children, and brought them to Church, to learn about Christ. She made the best pie's ever. Always there to help in the Church dinners, with a warm smile, and her loving ways. Sorry about her family's lost. My deepest sympathy goes out to all of her loved ones.
