“ So very sorry to hear of Vics passing. Another one of the greatest gone. I am at loss for comforting words. Just rest assured that he is in a better place, playing his guitar and singing for all his family and friends that are with him. The Lord will bless him and keep him and he will rest forever in Gods eternal peace. I loved to visit with Vic and Juanita. I used to cut his hair when he couldn't go out. We used to eat cornbread and buttermilk together. And best of all, was Vic singing and playing his guitar around a fire at night. The loss for all of us here is great. Heaven now has the pleasure. Love to all the family.
