“ The picture posted on Bill’s remembrance is from our wedding day. Such a handsome man I married and knew for 40 years. I miss Bill so much! He was my rock, confidante, advisor, and best friend. Sleep my love until we see each other again when Jesus comes and I once again can hear “ hello Beth “.

“ I lost my closest family member and my best friend. I still want to call him everyday. He was always there anytime of day when I needed something or just a listening ear. I always had the relaxing feeling in my head that anytime something might go wrong that he would be there for me. It is going to be hard to not have him in my life.

I will just go on the best I can and try to become the man he would want me to be.

I love ya dad thank you for being such a great father and spending 30 years with me.

Your son William

“ Bill was my stepfather... He was an amazing provider and wanted the best for his family and he worked very hard to assure that happened... Even though he and my mom separated the love and respect for Bill was always and will forever be there... The memories of his voice, little things he would say, his smile, his laugh will always be in my heart... I was honored to be able to be with him throughout this whole process and it was heartbreaking to see that his life had to be shortened by such an irresponsible action of another and I had to watch and loose him in this fight which I will always hold deeply to my heart... I felt each and every moment with him during the end and held him and his hand until his last breath and am glad he know longer has to suffer and now can't rest in a better place... I will have each and every moment from the young girl I was, to the adult woman I am today, to the last moment I was able to look into his eyes, hug him close, sing to him, pray for and over him, and let him know it's ok to let go for he no longer will suffer... he was a loving man and forever will be my dad... I love you bill... your daughter, Colleen <3

“ *Bill raised my sister and I from the time we were both little. Though he and my mom divorced he still remained a part of all of our lives! I have so many memories of Bill I'll cherish forever..a huge one being the day my brother William was born! The pure joy and pride on Bills face will never leave my mind!
Bill was an excellent stepfather and provider for our family! He was stern but loving!
I'll miss his smile and twinkling eyes!*
