

William "Bill" Price

May 10, 1923 - April 10, 2011

William "Bill" C. Price, 87, of Benton Harbor, passed away early Sunday, April 10, 2011, at Lakeland Regional Medical Center in St. Joseph. There will be no local services. Burial will take place in Mississippi at a later date. The Fairplain Chapel of Florin Funeral Service in Benton Harbor has been entrusted with the arrangements. Messages of condolence may be sent to www.florin.net.

Bill was born May 10, 1923, in Arkansas, to Newt and Eunice Price. Bill proudly served his country in the U.S. Navy during WWII achieving the rank of Seaman 1st Class. He married Jessie Louise Conn and together had one son, Ricky. Bill worked for 24 years at Dynac Corp. and previously for New Products Corp. prior to his retirement. He enjoyed fishing, farming and playing BINGO. His famous quote was, "I'm going to go until I can't go any more...and then I'll stop."

Bill is survived by his son, Ricky (Maya) Price of Buffalo Grove, IL; and by his grandson, Zachary W. Price.

In addition to his parents, Bill was preceded in death by his wife, Louise; sister, Mary; and by two step-brothers, Clinton and Hugh.

“ "Bill" was a loyal and trustworthy employee to work with, as I did for all those years....he was a true friend and there was never anything he wouldn't do...I can speak for the former Dynac when I say he was a special guy. I know he will be missed. Sincerly, Stuart "Stu" Bischoff
