Winifred was born on May 27, 1924 in Billing Hurst, England to William and Florence Buck. She met her first husband, David J. Kaiser, during WW II when she was in the British Army and David was in the US Army. They got married in 1945 and came to the US where she became a citizen. He preceded her in death in 1984. Her second husband, Claud Keyes, she married in 1985 and he preceded her in death in 2010. Winifred was employed for 12 ½ years as a machine operator at Wolverine Stamping before she retired in 1984. She was a member of the Faith Baptist Church in Mattawan for many years. She loved to go camping with Claud and enjoyed knitting. Although she was a quiet person she did have a good sense of humor. Winifred was a very caring individual who loved her family and her church.

Her family includes her children, John (Linda) Kaiser of Watervliet, Judy Brumley of Watervliet, Dennis (Sue) Kaiser of Ann Arbor, Linda Hurst of Stevensville, and Sharon (Ronn) Ballard of Stevensville; 13 grandchildren and her many great grandchildren and great great grandchildren. She was also preceded in death by a daughter, Karen Kaiser, her sister, Rose Buck and her 2 brothers, Fred and George Buck.
