

Wynona Ezell

August 2, 1922 - December 30, 2013

Coloma – Wynona Ezell, 91, of Coloma, passed away peacefully on Monday afternoon, December 30, 2013, at her home surrounded by her family.

A memorial service celebrating her life will be held at 6:00 P.M., on January 6, 2014, at Lily of the Valley Church on M-140 in Covert, MI. The Davidson Chapel of Florin Funeral Service, 249 E. Center Street, in Coloma has been entrusted with the arrangements. Cremation has taken place and burial will be private at a later date. Memorials may be sent to Lily of the Valley Church. Messages of condolence may be sent to www.florin.net.

Wynona was born on August 2, 1922 in Huntsville, AL. She married Clarence Ezell and together had 10 children. Wynona enjoyed musical activities including playing piano, guitar and singing. Wynona had a very deep faith in her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and was not ashamed to share her faith with anyone. She had a heart-of-gold and would never turn down giving help to anyone in need. Wynona never complained about anything and could always be counted on as being a 'loving peacemaker.' Most of all, Wynona cherished time spent with her beloved family – her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews.

Wynona is survived by her children, Jerri (Norm) Kinny, Judy Johnson, Paul

Ezell, Nona Jackson, Frank (Chris) Ezell, Tony (Brenda) Ezell, Candice Robinson, and Robin (Daniel) Dubas; 33 grandchildren; 62 great-grandchildren; and several great-great-grandchildren.

In addition to her parents, Wynona was preceded in death by her husband, Clarence; her children, Peggy Herrmann and Danny Ezell; and her grandsons Bruce Herrmann and Frankie Ezell, Jr.

“ My momma was a good momma. She raised me to believe in the Lord, to trust in the Lord and to live for the Lord. My momma had a very hard life doing the best she could to raise her children with what she had (a sixth grade education). No she wasn't perfect and she and I didn't agree on everything; (actually very little) ;) but I would not have changed her for the world. What I do know is when she decided Jesus was all she needed in this life everything else fell in place for her. She never did without. The Lord always met her needs. She raised her children to love all people. And we were not to treat people with disrespect. Everyone was created equal in her eyes. I love my momma for that. Momma never seem to meet a stranger. If you walked into her home and she never met you she would still give you a hug. Momma I will truly miss calling you and laughing with you and praying with you and singing with you. I love you momma and I will see you when we get to our new home in eternity.

“ Grandma Ezell was among the most loving family members iv had. She always loved beyond herself. She loved us all as much as she could & then some. But I can rejoice in knowing that she is with Jesus ! The one she loved the most. That fact is what keeps the grief at bay. Yes I will miss her but she is home. I'll see you later Grandma. I Love you :)

Hey son I had to copy and paste what meant to post for your grandma. You just happen to put it in the comments section of what Dewane had posted. So I moved it for you.

Thanks Micah for your beautiful words. You are such a blessing to me and your father. You were a blessing to your grandma too.

“ Granny ezell you were and are such a wonderful lady I'm so glad I got to be apart of your life and meet you, you were like another grandma to me. You're a very beautiful lady and you had such a big heart. I remember the first time meet you, you lived in Benton harbor and I came over with tony and Nona, tony and I were sitting on the same couch together and he was holding me hand and you told him not too, I also remember you asking us when were gonna get married. It was behind the cutest thing and I will never forget listening to you playing te guitar or sitting there making jokes. You impacted my life even though I only knew for three years, you still meant the world to me and it broke my heart when we lost you, but you're in a better place and I will never forgot the time we had together <3 love & miss you.

Hey Kay thanks for taking the time to share. I love what you said, "mom is where she wants to be". I am just hoping and praying everyday for my family and friends that they will "want" to be there as well. We need to keep spreading the Gospel (The Word) to help those that are weak in spirit. Unfortunately I don't think ALL of our loved ones will be meeting us in heaven. But I/we can keep praying and hoping. Love you Kay!

Hey Big Brother, thanks for showing your love for mom. I'm not sure what you heard but no one on this end is bickering about anything. Candy, Nona, Judy, Jerri and myself have all been showing our love for one another and support. So no need to worry about anything. Our mom was always the peace maker and that is what we (girls) have decided to be as well. "Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall see God." So thanks for your support. We love you very much. We have decided to postpone the memorial till the weather gets better so maybe you can join us then. Tell Christine hello! ; }
